TRYING A HOG FOR MURDER

Porker Duly Convicted Was Formally Sentenced to Be Hanged.

Anent strange cases, a lawyer said that a hog had been tried for murder, convicted and hanged. "At Clarmont-Avon, in France," he said, "a huge hog killed and ate a child. The people, horror-stricken, treated the hog as they would have treated a human being. They tried it."

He took down a book tied in gray calf.

"Here is the verdict," he said, "the original of which is kept in the national museum of Paris. It is dated June 14, 1494, and reads:

"We, the jury, in detestation and horror of this crime, and in order to make an example and to satisfy justice, have declared, judged, sentenced, pronounced and appointed that the said hog, now detained in the abbey as a prisoner, shall by the executioner be hung and strangled on a gibbet near the gallows which now stands within the jurisdiction of the monk. In witness whereof we have sealed this present with our seals."

Future of the East.

The recent surprising military triumphs of the Japanese have given that people the present hegemony of eastern Asia; but the destiny of that great region may be more bound up in the future transformation of China, with its multitudinous, homogeneous and indestructible race. Coupled with the development of these two great empires, there are other questions more or less intimately related to their future. Most prominent of these is the rivalry of Great Britain and Russia, involving the Afghanistan frontier and the suzerainty of Tibet. Outlying questions are the predominating influence in Persia, Germany's recent masterful interests in the helpless but incorrigible Turk, and the control of the Persian gulf.—John W. Foster, in Atlantic.

Motor Chair for Seasickness.

Anybody who has had a good case of seasickness must have felt that he would welcome the electric chair as a relief. Now an electric chair for seasickness has been tested in an English channel steamer and an ocean liner. You sit in a snug armchair. A motor under the seat is connected with the ship's electric current. You sit and take vibratory treatment. Up and down and crosswise you are shaken. Most sitters need but one treatment. Their tendency to seasickness is vibrated out of them. Some need a second sitting. A few are seasick as soon as their treatment ends. It is a preventive, mark you, not cure. The theory is that seasickness is essentially a nervous malady, and that vibration reduces the nervousness.—Everybody's Magazine.

Contempt for the Town Kicker.

The kickers on the farm are not so hard to get along with as those in the towns. On the farm there is the kicking cow and our long-ear friend, the mule, while in town there is the old mossback who wants all the privileges of municipal living without paying for them, and block, so far as he can, every municipal improvement. The cow may be sold for beef and the mule traded for a shotgun, but nothing but a funeral will get rid of the town kicker.—Rossville (Kan.) Reporter.

Cranks.

A group of persons on the borderland of insanity contains collectors, misers, kleptomaniacs—I was going to add philanthropists, but perhaps I had better leave them out, though in some, I might say, many, cases the so-called benevolent philanthropist is a crank.—Dr. Savage, in British Medical Journal.

To Subjugate Man.

The way in which a woman can secure the power of the ideal is by being feminine. Her femininity plagues men, and irritates them, but it attracts them irresistibly; the pique and the irritation lead them straight to subjugation.—Vanity Fair.

No Damaged Canvas Wanted.

Artist (to landlord)—I can't pay my rent, but I can give you a lot of canvases as security.

Landlord—All right; I'll take them if you have not painted on them.—Family Journal.

How to Break Up a Cold.

It may be a surprise to many to learn that a severe cold can be completely broken up in one or two days' time. To do this, however, prompt action is necessary. The first symptoms of a cold are a dry, loud cough, a profuse watery discharge from the nose, and a thin, white coating on the tongue. When Chamberlain's cough remedy is taken every hour on the first appearance of the symptoms, it counteracts the effect of the cold and restores the system to a healthy condition within a day or two. For sale by L. L. Elgin and Anderson & Fowler, up-to-date druggists at Hopkinsville.

Unknown Friends.

There are many people who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with splendid results, but who are unknown because they have hesitated about giving a testimonial of their experience for publication. These people, however, are none the less friends of this remedy. They have done much toward making it a household word by their personal recommendations to friends and neighbors. It is a good medicine to have in the home and is widely known for its cures of diarrhoea and all forms of bowel trouble. Sold by L. L. Elgin and Anderson & Fowler, the up-to-date druggists of Hopkinsville.

Sore Muscles.

Prominent athletes throughout the country find that the best treatment for sore muscles after severe exercise or hard work of any kind, is a hot bath at bed time, which opens the pores. This should immediately be followed with an application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, vigorously rubbed into the skin. This liniment removes all stiffness and soreness and has become a favorite rub down, as it acts promptly and keeps the muscles in excellent condition. For sale by L. L. Elgin and Anderson & Fowler, up-to-date druggists at Hopkinsville.
